To Whom It May Concern:

Minnesota Housing is open for business and continues to offer our homeownership programs, including our down payment and closing cost loans. Since Minnesota Housing Finance Agency's creation in 1971, we have assisted more than 400,000 households through various housing markets. During the housing crash and Great Recession of 2007-2009, our homebuyer programs remained available. In 2019 we helped nearly 5,500 households purchase a home or refinance to a lower interest rate. In 2020, we are on track to assist a similar number of households. We have continuously served Minnesotans during the best and the most challenging economic environments and we continue to do so.

Minnesota Housing's vision is that all Minnesotans live and thrive in a safe, stable home they can afford in a community of their choice. We are here and look forward to assisting you with your real estate transaction.
